That I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life,
To gaze on the beauty of the LORD and to seek him in his temple.

Psalm 27:4

What an incredible weekend at RHCC. Saturday started off very cold and wet. That however did not deter the strong and hearty souls determined to qualify for their Concealed Carry Permit. Fifty-two made it to the range and all qualified! Congratulations.

Saturday night saw the faithful joining in an incredible meal, fellowship, and a wonderful movie night. "Nail 32" was on the 'big screen' hosted by Champion Bull Rider, Scott Mendez. While it was cold and blustery and wet outside, we were warmed with the good food, good fellowship and the word of our Lord and an exciting and very touching movie.

And if Saturday night didn't spoil us enough, we were again treated to the words of wisdom from Scott Mendez as he was our guest pastor Sunday morning and presented a wonderful, thought provoking message. If you get a chance to see and visit with Scott, please do so. I promise you will not be disappointed.

Almost immediately after service, more range qualifying began for those unable to get to the range on Saturday. And then, beginning around 3pm, the classroom portion began...and for those of you who have done this, you know that portion is a minimum of 4 hours... Congratulations for all those who participated and passed. I already feel safer.
